

Career BluePrint 2018 Workshops

A DAY IN THE LIFE OF A YOUNG ENTREPRENEUR

Hear from a young entrepreneur and learn what it is really like to establish and run your own business. Why go against some of the traditional advice and typical pathways? Being your own boss you get to decide when you start and finish, how you spend your days and what problems you get to solve.

Designing your own products, services and systems means you get to be creative. Networking with entrepreneurs and businesses gives you new ideas and inspiration.

FUTURE CAREERS, JOBS AND 21ST CENTURY SKILLS

Technology is changing the way we work in all professions, the growth and development of new technologies is only going to accelerate. So in an ever changing workforce how can you keep up change and adapt to be able to stay employable? Using insights from leading workforce planning company Workforce BluePrint we will share with you what these changes mean for jobs and how you can get one step ahead.

NETWORK AND BUILD CONNECTIONS LIKE A PRO

There's so much buzz about networking that you may think it's over done. There are two important things you should remember about networking. First, networking is nothing new. The second thing to remember about 21st century networking is that it's only as good as you make it. Learn strategies to get the most out of your networking and build professional relationships.

SOCIAL MEDIA SKILLS FOR IMPROVING EMPLOYABILITY

Social media is not going away any time soon, it is growing into a powerful recruitment and job seeking tool. Employers are now searching candidates on social media as a standard part of the recruitment process. Get the low down on the do's and don'ts of social media when applying for jobs.

Learn how you can make social media work for you, demonstrating your skills and abilities in the field you want to work in.

INTERVIEW FOR SUCCESS

Taking a systematised approach will enable you to bring your A game to your next interview, putting you on track to the career you deserve. Let us help you create a vision for your future employers that will help you highlight all the things that make you appealing as an employee.

When you understand the employers' perspective you can re-frame everything you say and do, to ensure it is seen in the most positive light and is aligned with their goals and needs.

HOW TO GET YOUR FIRST JOB OR APPRENTICESHIP

With youth at risk of high unemployment, it is important to be proactive, gain workplace experience and skills with an After School Job or School Based Apprenticeship.

In this workshop, you will learn how to connect with employers, resume guidelines to follow and the basics of how to interview, how to behave, questions to ask and how to present well.

WHAT EMPLOYERS WANT

With so many applications for casual or part-time jobs, Australian Apprenticeships or graduate roles, it's important to have that point of difference to stand out from the crowd. Get tips on how to make your application and resume stand out, present and conduct yourself for an interview, and of course how to get recruited. Ideal for high school, VET or University students, recent graduates, people seeking employment generally, career advisers, parents and teachers.

HOW TO GET WORK EXPERIENCE

Work experience is important but it can be difficult to find and organise.

The question is how can you gain placements easily, use your connections and seek work experience that helps you to decide where to next?

Once you've arranged your work experience or project you need to make a good impression, look the part and understand what behaviour is expected of you in the workplace. Hints and tips on how to make the most of work experience, employer's expectations, your attitude and the basics of networking are all covered.

All workshops can be presented in a 45 minute version or a 1.5 hour version.

Whilst in your city, town or region is the opportunity to facilitate an event bringing together employers, job seekers, young people, parents and teachers. A successful format has been an interview with a key employer or entrepreneur and a panel of apprentice, graduate, job active provider and local/state or commonwealth government representatives.
